10. Prior Conduct (Please answer ALL questions by ticking Yes or No)

You must provide an answer to each of the questions 1 to 10 below and sign and date the declaration below

Please read the guidance note below which explains the questions.

1. Have you been convicted or accepted a caution in the UK or elsewhere (other than a motoring offence, not resulting in disqualification)? This includes a fixed penalty notice that you have failed to pay. Yes No
2. Have you ever been subject to any investigations or proceedings concerning your fitness to practise by any regulatory or professional body (including findings or orders currently under appeal)? Yes No
3. Have you ever been adjudged bankrupt or made a composition with creditors? Yes No
4. Have you ever been removed from being a trustee of a charity, or removed from being concerned with the management or control of a charity? Yes No
5. Have you been removed from office as a member, director or manager of any public body? Yes No
6. Have you been disqualified as acting as a director of a company? Yes No
7. Have you been the subject of a civil judgment? Yes No
8. Has a determination (i.e. a decision) been made by the Legal Ombudsman in the last 12 months against you or your employer in relation to a complaint about your work and/or service? Yes No
9. Have any clients made a complaint about your work and/or service to you or your employer in the last 12 months? Yes No
10. Have you previously declared any prior conduct to CILEx Regulation? Yes No

If the answer to any of the above questions is 'YES' you must provide details of the circumstances below (use a separate sheet if needed); we may request further information.

GUIDANCE NOTES:

1. A conviction is where you have been found guilty of a criminal offence. A caution is where the police have disposed of the matter against you rather than send your case to the court. A fixed penalty notice is where you have been given a financial penalty by the police. If you have failed to pay the penalty you must declare it. This declaration is subject to the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. You do not need to declare protected cautions and protected convictions.
2. An order by a regulatory or professional body may have been made where you belonged to another organisation and they disciplined you.
3. A bankruptcy order is where a court has said you are unable to pay your debts. A composition with creditors is where you agree to repay people to who you owe money.
4. A trustee is someone that has been given responsibility for another person's property.
5. A public body is an organisation whose work is part of the process of Government.
6. A company is any business firm in the private (non-public) sector of an economy, controlled and operated by private individuals (and not by civil servants or government employees).
7. A civil judgment is a court order which states that you owe a debt to someone else and must pay it back. If you have any other civil judgment made against you that involves any matter such as debt, fraud, misrepresentation or conduct related to the administration of justice please let us know.
8. Legal Ombudsman determinations relating to complaints that involve you will usually be directed at entities. This question is to enable CILEx Regulation to collect information about the types and numbers of complaints made against CILEx members. Your response will not be recorded against your personal record.
9. This question is to enable CILEx Regulation to collect information about the types and numbers of complaints made against CILEx members. Your response will not be recorded against your personal record.
10. This question enables CILEx Regulation to link any previous information provided by you to avoid duplication of information.

DECLARATION:

I declare that the information given in this form is correct. I understand that once registered as a member of CILEx I shall be regulated by CILEx Regulation and be bound by the provisions of the Charter bye-laws and all other rules and regulations of CILEx for the time being in force, including the CILEx Code of Conduct. Where information provided is found to be false disciplinary action may be pursued.
