

Law Training Centre Kent Ltd 'Refer a friend' scheme Terms and Conditions

1. By entering the 'refer a friend' scheme you are agreeing to these terms and conditions.
2. This 'refer a friend' scheme is being run by Law Training Centre Kent Ltd.

Eligibility to enter

3. The referrer must be a current or former law Training Centre learner.
4. The referred learner must be a new learner that has not been enrolled on any course with Law Training Centre previously.
5. The referral scheme is not available to employers for referring or funding their learners to study with us, the referral scheme is only available to individual learners.

How to enter

6. All those who are referred will need to complete the 'refer a friend' section of the enrolment form for the course you are enrolling on, by writing both the name and email of the referring learner. This must be the same name and used upon enrolling with Law Training Centre.
7. Both the referring and referred learner will receive an email from Law Training Centre upon the referred learners completed enrolment, requesting confirmation of their chosen referral reward.

The reward

8. For each referral made, both the referrer and the referred learner will receive a voucher or tuition credit, with the value being dependant on the cost of the course they are enrolling on:
  - a) A digital One4all voucher or tuition credit to the value of £25.00 when enrolling on a course with the value of £1,000.00 or above.
  - b) A digital One4all voucher or tuition credit to the value of £10.00 when enrolling on a course with a value of less than £1,000.00.

9. If a voucher is selected, it will be emailed to each recipient upon the new learner's enrolment onto their chosen course.
10. If tuition credit is select, this will be applied at the invoicing stage of enrolment. Tuition credit cannot be used to gain a refund on a course that has already been paid for.

Rules of the scheme

11. There is no limit to the number of people that a referrer can refer. However, Law Training Centre reserves the right to investigate any referrals that seem illegitimate on unfairly used.
12. The reward will not be issued until the referred student has fully completed the enrolment process, including making the payment for the course.
13. If the person being referred is paying through one of our interest free instalment plans, and ceases making payment, they will be required to reimburse Law Training Centre for the value of the full amount of both referral vouchers.
14. Referral vouchers will not be given to current or previous learners of Law Training Centre who have withdrawn from a course or have an outstanding overdue payment on their account.
15. Effective from 28th October 2022, no referrals made before this date are eligible.

This referral scheme can be reviewed at any time. Law Training Centre reserve the right to withdraw or amend the regards scheme at any time.
